

Beginning Oil Painting – Supply List

INSTRUCTOR: SHERRON FERGASON

With oil paints, buy the best you can buy.

Limited Paint Supply List:

- Titanium White (large tube)
- Ultramarine Blue
- Cadmium Red Medium
- Cadmium Yellow Medium
- Burnt sienna
- Yellow Ochre

Additional Colors for a Limited Palette:

- Cerulean Blue
- Cadmium Red Light
- Cadmium Yellow Light

Brushes are very much a personal preference. It will take time to learn what you like. For now, choose Filberts, Numbers 2,4,8,10

Pallet Knife: 1 inch

Cheap 2–3-inch brush

Mediums:

- Gamsol: this is an alternative to mineral spirits and is odorless.
- Liquin or Linseed oil: a good medium used by some to spread paint while working your canvas.

Small Jar: with a tight-fitting lid (a pickle, jelly jar) or a palette cup with tight seal

Canvas: Inexpensive canvas panels are good to start. I recommend 9 x 12, 11 x 14. As a group, we could decide to go larger but, in the beginning, let us stay with these sizes for now.

Apron, Paper palette (disposable paper), paper towels, small trash bag.
